The Aficio 1018D allows you to have an exceptionally productive and affordable way to put a two page document on a single sheet of paper! Engineered to provide consistently reliable operation, the Aficio 1018D offers standard two-sided output, optional automatic document feeding, a feature set designed specifically for the small office/workgroup environment and expansion opportunities that include both faxing and network printing.

Good Business Sense

If you're in charge of a small business or workgroup, you know to look for ways to reduce overall operating costs. With the Aficio 1018D, you can automatically produce two-sided output, which means saving money is not at the expense of productivity. And save money you will! You'll cut paper costs in half, reduce the need for the expense of a hard copy filing space and you'll lower your postage costs. But the benefits don't stop there. Optional automatic document feeding eliminates the need to manually position multiple original sets, 11" x 17" duplexing enhances output versatility and an intuitive control panel provides easy accessibility to all features ensuring accurate results every time.

The "All-in-One" Solution

It's easy to add-on to your Aficio 1018D and eliminate separate fax and/or printing systems.
